

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

for Rampenlichter 2021

Rampenlichter—the dance and theatre festival for children and youth is a festival for dance and theatre of the young generation. Children and young people conquer the stage and passionately negotiate current topics from their living environments. They are in exchange about the artistic work of young people from all over the world and the important questions of our time. Rampenlichter is giving children and young people and their creativity and visions a voice and a professional stage. They conquer artistic spaces imaginatively and full of energy. Thanks to their unique power and inspiring varieties Rampenlichter is a exceptional festival of art by children and teenagers.

We are looking for productions in which a common and co-producing artistic process of children, young people and adults is visible. Rampenlichter is a festival of the variety and diversity of stage art of children and young people and a creative space for all young artists. Artistic collectives from all sectors are called upon to apply for the 2021 festival. From small self-developed youth projects to the finished piece in the large ensemble a wide variety is demanded. In July 2021 dance and theatre enthusiasts from Munich, Germany and other countries will meet for 14 days at Rampenlichter. The young creatives meet to perform and watch shows, for joint discussions, for dance and theatre workshops by professionals and for each other, for creative exchange and planned or unplanned artistic actions in Munich with one week time for each group!
